

GET YOUR GENERAL CLASS AMATEUR RADIO LICENSE

The Tamiami Amateur Radio Club (TARC) wants to help you get your license. In these COVID-19 days, in person classes in confined space class rooms is not safe. SO, we are recommending that interested persons use already published, on-line study, courses to prepare for the FCC license exam. TARC will supplement your self-study efforts with on-line ZOOM video chat sessions to answer your questions and to supplement what you are learning in the on-line courses. We are proposing the following-schedule for your self-learning:

Week of:	Topics	ZOOM Session
	ORIENTATION AND GETTING STARTED DISCUSSION	1 pm Sep 20
Sep 21	Chapter 2, Procedures, and Chapter 3 Rules & Regs	1 pm Sep 27
Sep 28	Chapter 4, Components, & Circuits (part 1)	1 pm Oct 4
Oct 5	Chapter 4, Components, & Circuits (part 2)	1 pm Oct 11
Oct 12	Chapter 5, Radio Signals & Equipment	1 pm Oct 18
Oct 19	Chapter 6, Digital Modes	1 pm Oct 25
Oct 26	Chapter 7, Antennas and Chapter 8 Propagation	1 pm Nov 1
Nov 2	Chapter 9, Electrical & RF Safety / Review for Testing	1 pm Nov 8
	VE TESTING SESSION	TBD Nov 14

Suggested Study Text: ARRL General Class License Manual for Ham Radio, 9th Edition
(Available from Amazon at $29.95 paperback, or $19.99 Kindle e-book)

Suggested On-Line Study Course: Sign-up with "Ham Test Online" at <https://www.hamradiolicenseexam.com/> (6-month subscription for $24.95)

There is NO CHARGE for our club volunteers to conduct the weekly ZOOM video sessions. Our goal is to keep you motivated and moving forward with your self-study, and to get you prepared to take and pass the FCC license examination. Zoom moderators:
